ALMA MATER

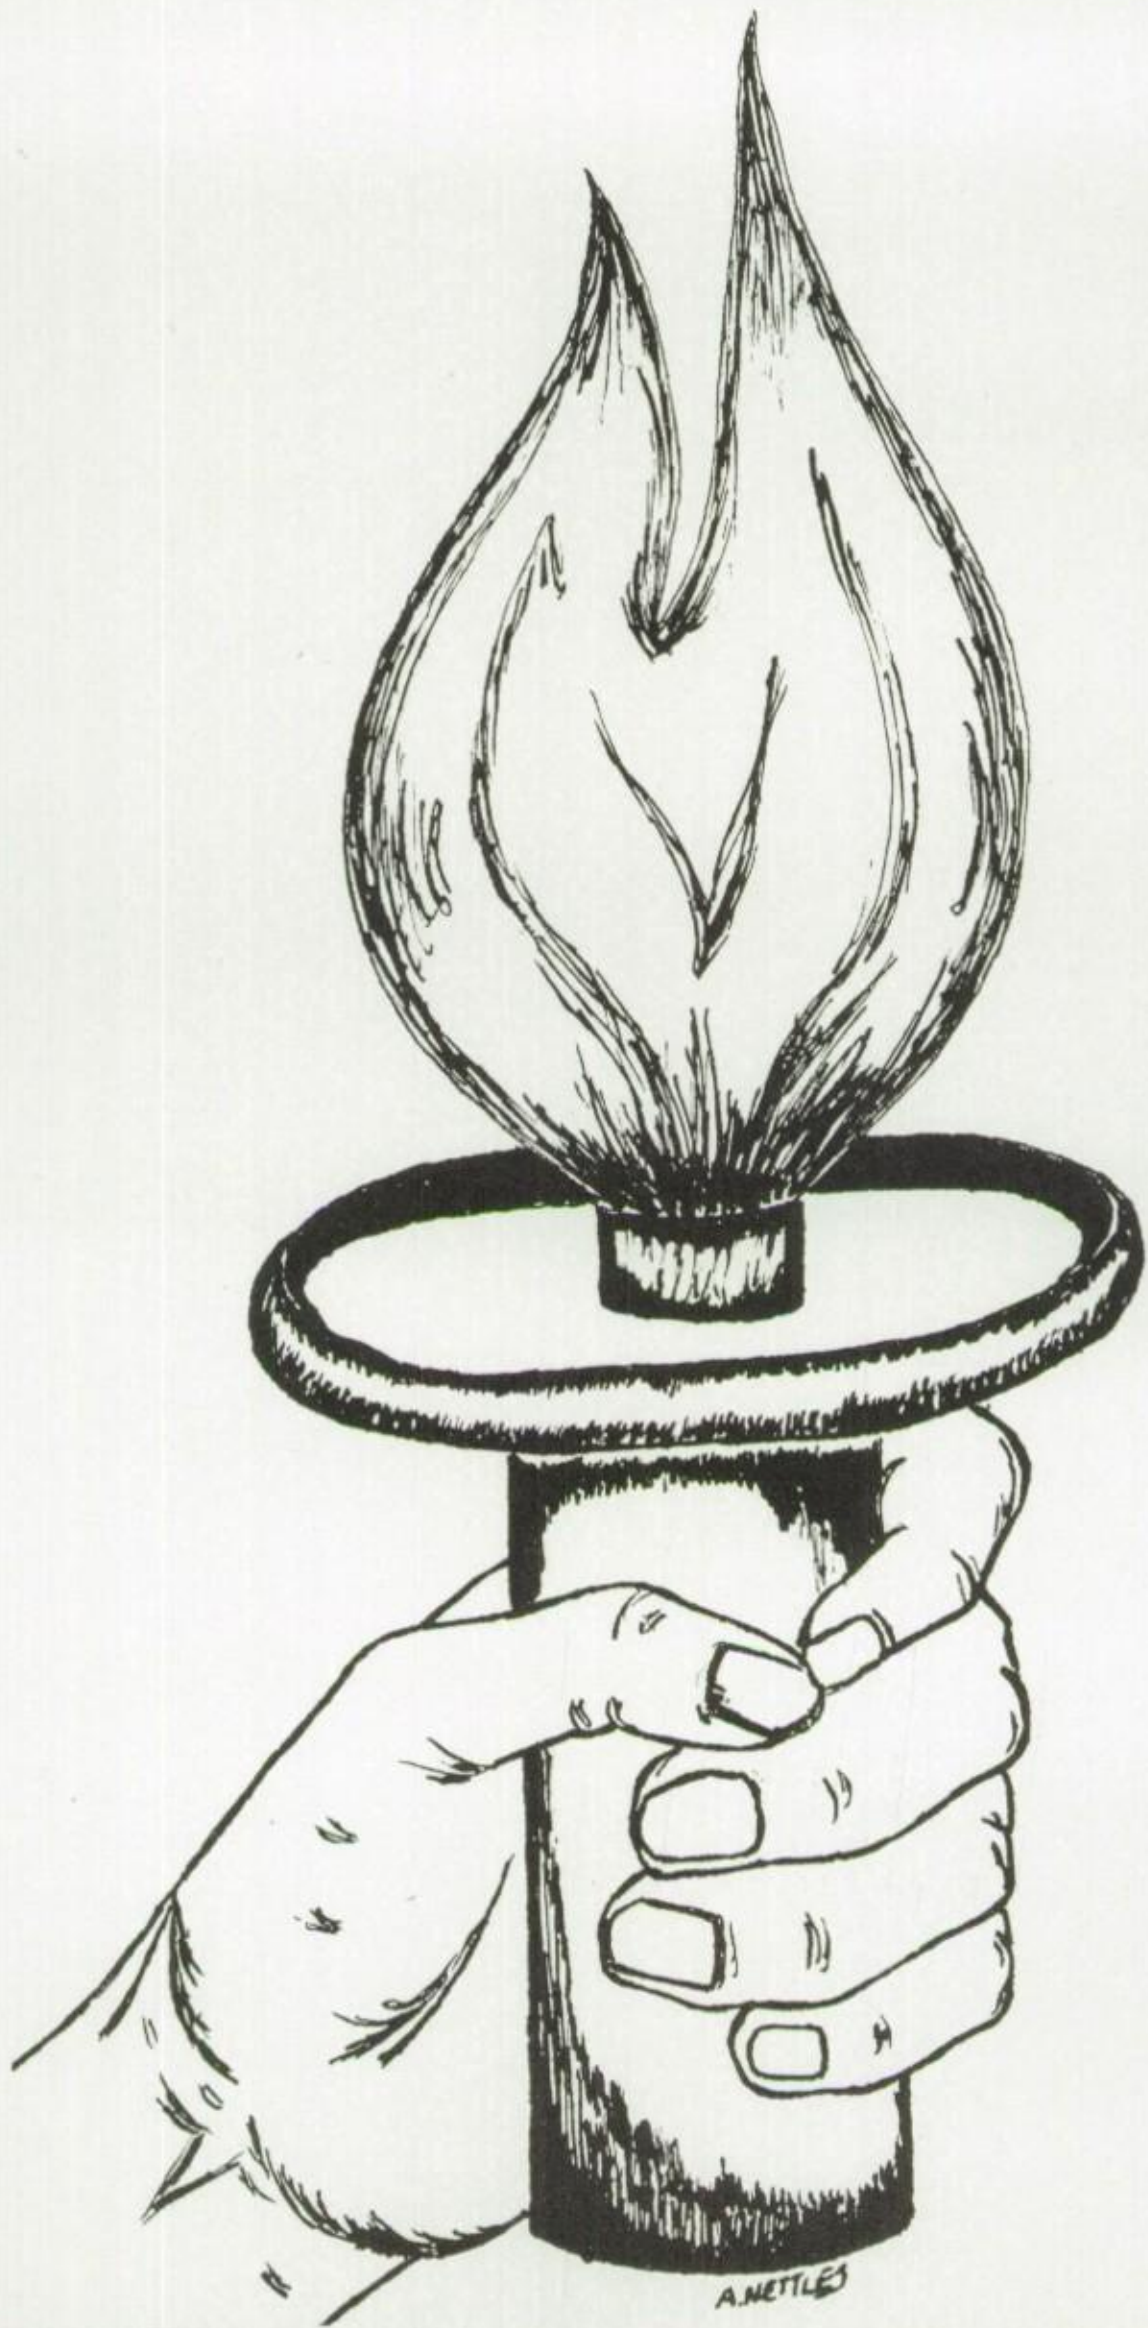

Raise your voice for Daniel
Boone
To her praises sing,
Of the days within her halls
Memories ever cling.
Daniel Boone, Daniel Boone,
Hail the white and blue,
In the class or on the field
Blazers will be true.

As the years go fleeting by
 Graduates we'll be,
 Taking with us through the world
 Blazer loyalty.
 Daniel Boone, Daniel Boone,
 Alma Mater fair,
 We'll ne'er forget our days
 with you,
 School beyond compare.

*If you think you're beaten, you are;
If you think you dare not, you don't.
If you'd like to win, but think you can't,
it's almost a cinch you won't.
If you think you'll lose, you're lost;
for out in this world you'll find;
Success begins in a person's heart—
it's all in you'r state of mind.*

*If you think you're outclassed, you are;
you've got to aim high to rise;
you've got to be sure of yourself before
you ever can win the prize.
For the game doesn't always go to the stronger or faster man;
Sooner or later the victory goes to the one who thinks he can.*

Advisor--Miss Bukey

PRESIDENT--Glen Schaeffer

VICE PRESIDENT--Sharon

TREASURER--Sherri Rissmiller

SECRETARY--Patti Grubb

CLASS COLORS: Blue and Gold

CLASS FLOWER: Yellow Rose

Here we are at the end of high school, and what have we actually learned? I believe most of what we have learned can be summed up in one word: SENIOR. Each letter of the word SENIOR can also be the first letter of a subject about which we have learned. I'll start with what some people might say is all that they have learned in twelve years: Nothing. If you use N as a variable in mathematics, you must multiply it by a value in order that it take on a higher value. If you multiply it by zero, you get zero, and if in twelve years you have put nothing into your education, you will receive nothing.

Many of us have been the recipient of a lot of E as in Education and I as in Interest in our vocations. We have also learned much about S as in Self, more about O, as in getting along with others, and the most about R as in the Reality we have been taught to cope with.

Even so, individual letters mean little, while the whole word SENIOR represents the end of our high school career and the start of our future.

Junior Miss

Who me? Nervous?

On October 2, at Schuylkill Valley High School, the 1976 Junior Miss Pageant took place. Representing our school was Darla Van Putten. The theme of the pageant was Winter Carnival and the girls appeared in skating outfits. As her talent, Darla sang a song entitled, "What Color is Love?" Her costume and background were of her own design. Darla is also shown here in the evening gown segment of the pageant.

A dazzling smile in a lovely setting.

A look of anticipation . . .

GOOD CITIZEN AWARD

The DAR Good Citizens Program is open to boys and girls in the Senior Class. By secret ballot, the Seniors vote for a candidate who is most deserving of the award. The person is voted for on the qualities: Dependability, Service, Leadership, and Patriotism. A committee of faculty members selected the winner from the students' three highest candidates.

The 1976 DAR winner is Christine Godshall. Chris is involved in many activities inside of our school as well as outside. She is pictured participating in only a few of them.

A cold school, Saturday morning, Y-Teens' "net" Christmas trees? You must be kidding!

Chris has performed with the Marching Band at the football games for several years.

As Treasurer of Student Council, Chris' duties are never done.

1976 Homecoming Queen

The Queen and her Court.

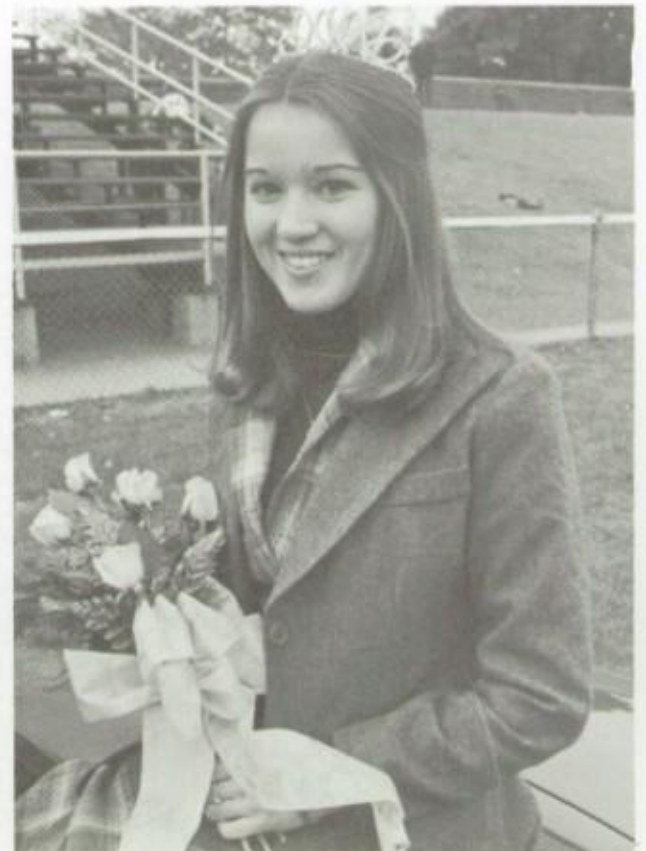

The 1976 Homecoming Festivities began on a sunny October 30th in the high school cafeteria where the cheerleaders served a pancake breakfast to the football team. The next segment of this year's Homecoming Day took place during half-time at Municipal Stadium. With the band playing "Feelings", the Court and their escorts were introduced to the homestands. Last year's Queen, Suzy Weaver, crowned Sherri Rissmiller as the 1976 Homecoming Queen.

The football team captured a victory, beating the Hamburg Hawks with a final score of 14-6.

That evening, the Varsity Club sponsored the annual Homecoming Dance. Over 350 students rocked to the music of "Springfield" in the gym. It was the perfect ending of a sunny day for all.

Returned to her car, Sherri smiles to the crowd.

Junior-Senior Class Play

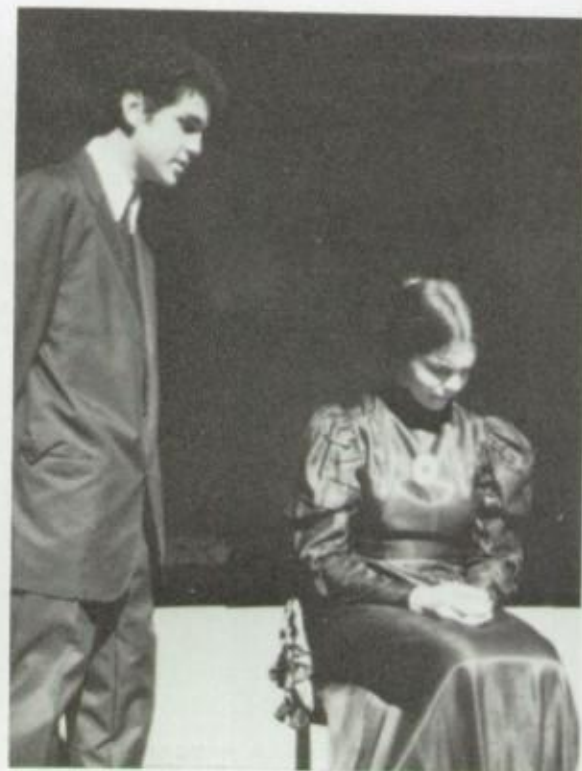

The play, "The Miracle Worker", is the moving story of Helen Keller--a deaf, dumb, and blind child locked in a dark world of her own. Annie Sullivan, her teacher, unlocks the door of her world.

The play opens in the Keller homestead in Alabama. Helen, as a baby, is just getting over a case of acute congestion. It is at this time that her mother, Kate, realizes that Helen can neither see nor hear.

Six years later, Helen has become a very troubled child. Her brilliant mind is restrained and she frequently resorts to temper tantrums. At the insistence of his sister, Captain Keller agrees to write to a doctor in Baltimore for help.

In the next scene, Anne Sullivan is preparing to leave Perkins Institute for the Blind. Giving her a few final words of counsel is Dr. Anagnos, her former teacher.

Before she leaves, her friends at the Institute sadly come to give her a farewell gift.

Annie meets Helen. Their relationship is a shaky one. Helen seems to get her way too often, much to Annie's chagrin. Finally, Annie requests permission to stay with Helen alone for two weeks.

The Miracle Worker

At the end of that time, Helen and Annie return to the Keller home. Helen's behavior has changed drastically and she is now a well-mannered child, until she realizes that she might be able to get away with all that she did before.

Throughout the story, there is an everpresent conflict between Captain Keller and James, his son. James longs for his father's respect and friendship but receives only scorn. However, when Annie takes Helen from the table because of her bad manners, James stands up to his father in defense of Anne's action. This is where his famous line comes in, "Over my dead--chair!"

As a punishment for misbehaving at the table, Annie makes Helen refill the water pitcher. Then, the Miracle happens. The pitcher shatters on the ground. Annie watches as Helen, speaking for the first time, stammers the words "Wah-wah." With this miraculous accomplishment, Helen is eager to learn and understand everything.

It is at this time that Helen, after sharing the moment with her parents, wonders who the stranger is who has taught all that she knows. She reaches out to Annie.

Annie, until now, has thought herself incapable of loving anyone. Suddenly she is struck with the realization that "Annie loves Helen". Annie Sullivan has gained the respect of the Keller family but, more importantly, she has gained the love of Helen.

Behind The Scenes

A lot of work goes into putting a play together. Months of rehearsals are spent learning lines, painting scenery and organizing props. It's work, but it's fun, too. When the evening of the performance comes it makes all the preparations worthwhile.

Mrs. Sethness, the director, is shown here giving a few final instructions to the cast.

Standing in the depths is Miss Hawman as stage manager.

*THE
DANIEL BOONE
MARCHING BAND
UNDER THE DIRECTION OF
MR. JAMES
CAPOLUPO*

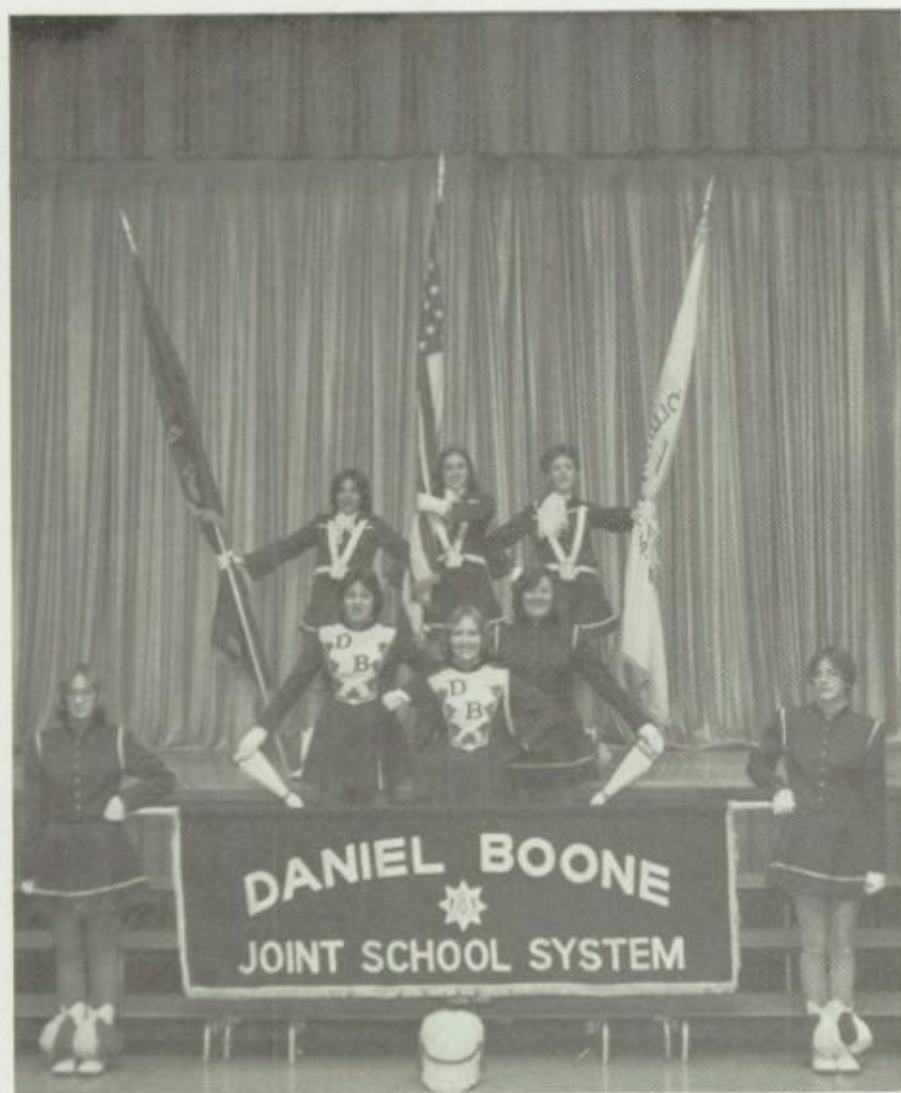

Practice was the key word for the marching band this year. The students and directors spent countless hours working on routines and movements for the show. Along with performing at every football game, they also competed in three cavalcades. The highlight of the year had to be the band attending a competition at Veterans Stadium, competing with the best bands in the state. While the band didn't place, they had their best score of the 1976 season.

A first for the marching band was a banquet at the end of the season. It was a covered dish, and everybody enjoyed the program which featured the Daniel Boone Stage Band and Dr. James Wells from West Chester State College.

The combined efforts of the band director Mr. Capolupo, the band front director Miss Evanna Rhoades, and especially the students, certainly produced an exciting and rewarding year for everyone involved.

Senior choir, directed by Mrs. Deborah Weinhold, performs in at least two concerts during the year. They also travel to various hospitals and schools to entertain.

The choir does a variety of music from the Renaissance to music of today. This year the choir did a rock patriotic work, "Spirit of 76", which they performed at other schools. In the spring they had a concert in which they saluted Walt Disney.

The senior choir has evolved over the years from a traditional formal choir to an exploratory group using contemporary techniques of music and staging.

Under the new and able leadership of Mr. James Capolupo, (you have to get those Italian names right!), this is what Daniel Boone's concert band has done this year. They have performed in three concerts, playing such well known hits as "Jaws" and "MacArthur Park", and the band went to Atlantic City for a national festival. Good luck band and keep up the good work!

How about a little jazz?

You need a drum, Ed.

This year the Stage Band actually consisted of two bands, Stage Band "A", and Stage Band "B". Band "A" was the main band, the one that toured and competed. Band "B" was considered the "learning band." Its purpose was to prepare students for Band "A". Members had to audition to get in the bands.

Several songs the Stage Band played this year were: "Angel Eyes", "The Opener", "Send in the Clowns", and "Night Song".

Under the leadership of Mr. Capolupo, new at D.B. this year, the Stage Band is looking forward to a bright future.

Y-Teens is a fun-filled service organization which provides many services for the school and community. We gave five unfortunate families Thanksgiving baskets, so they had something to be thankful for. The Sr. Citizens and the halls of D.B. benefited from our Christmas spirit. The Reading Country Club was the spot for our Formal Dinner in February and our Y-Teen models wore the latest fashions at our annual fashion Show. We would like to thank our officers and Mrs. Stopper and Mrs. Shannon for a VERY successful year.

Daniel Boone Youth Education Association (D.B.Y.E.A.) is a club comprised of students who are interested in improving education. Speakers from different organizations attended the meetings, which were held twice a month. Some of their speakers included representatives from the Republican Party, the Democratic Party, a speaker on transcendental meditation, and a speaker on job securities. The club took a field trip to Muhlenberg and Kutztown Colleges in November. It proved to be an informative trip for all who attended. In December D.B.Y.E.A. had a pizza sale to raise money. Money raised in the sale was used to help finance a convention which was held in January. This certainly has been a progressive year for the club, and they are looking forward to many more.

The French Club is comprised of students in grades 8-12 who are interested in the French language and culture. FOOTBALL

The 1976 football team started practicing August 16 with two practices per day. Two scrimmages were played before the season with Unionville-Chadsford and Elco. Our first league game was played against Lansdale Catholic.

The football team consisted of 56 players, 19 of them being seniors. The week of the Central Catholic game, Tom Wocklish was chosen for Berks Back of the Week. In our game against Hamburg, Tom Wocklish intercepted a pass and ran for a 79 yard touchdown.

The school record in one season was broken by Ed LaSalle with 16 extra points. Bill McCrudden broke the school record of 76 point and 12 touchdowns with 84 points and 14 touchdowns. The team's overall record was 4 wins and 5 defeats.

Let's go Boone!--Pam Carfagna

This year the 1976 football cheerleaders did a great job of supporting the guys. To keep the spirit up at D.B., they had a pancake breakfast for the football players in the school cafeteria the morning of the Homecoming game. They had Spirit Week the week of the Exeter game, and they were always making signs to hang in the halls and to decorate the football buses.

They started practicing everyday the beginning of July, getting ready to go to the Pocono Sports Camp where they won a first place. Then when they came home, they had practice everyday until school started and everyday after school.

Under their advisor, Ms. Mary Sethness and their captain, Pam Carfagna, the cheerleaders succeeded in keeping the spirit alive in the halls at Daniel Boone.

Mark Brown heads toward the finish line.

Tim Schiel broke the school record for our 2.5 mile course. Tim ran a 13.57.3 against Twin Valley to break the record by 1.5 seconds. In the Berks County Cross Country Meet Boone's best performances were at Vo-Tech West: Placing in the meet were: Tim Schiel, Neal Black--41st; Mark Brown--54th; Jeff Norris--67th and Terry Hafer--69th. The team placed 9th out of 17 teams. Our league record was four wins and four defeats; this placed us 5th in the league. We also had a J.V. team this year, and their record was two wins and two defeats. With only three members graduating and the return of eight lettermen, the team should be a contender for the Section II championship next year.

During these practices the team concentrated on their drives, flicks and scoring techniques. Offense and defense usually practiced separately and then together, defense against offense. At the close of the practice they scrimmaged with each other.

The 1976-77 Blazer Basketball Season was one of ups and downs. But as usual the cheerleaders were always there to keep things alive. Not only did they keep the spirit going at the games but they also kept it alive in school. For example, the girls decorated the players lockers, wore their warm-up jackets, and also decorated their houses. These were just a few things the cheerleaders did to support the team. The girls would like to give great thanks to their super advisor, Miss Hanson.

We'll Remember Them As . . .

The Myth Of Orion

Orion was not your everyday mortal. At least not after Diana fell in love with him. It happened at first sight, while they were hunting, something they both loved to do. From that moment they spent a great deal of time together and were very happy.

However, Diana was the Goddess of the Moon, and the moon was drastically neglected after she met Orion. Night after night the world remained in darkness. Diana's brother, Apollo, was enraged that she was shirking her duties, and, especially, that she was in love with a mere mortal. He begged her to join him in the sky once again while he pulled the sun and she, the moon. But he received no cooperation. So he decided he ought to devise a plot to solve the problem.

One bright day, while Orion was swimming, Apollo saw his opportunity. Concentrating his golden rays on the water around Orion, he made the ocean sparkle with such great intensity that Orion could barely be seen. Then he called to Diana relaxing on the shore and challenged her to hit the dark, blurry object in the distance. Diana smugly drew her arrow and hit her target directly.

But, it wasn't until Orion's body washed upon the shore that evening that Diana realized what she had done. Furious and grief-stricken, Diana could only think to carry him to the darkest corner of the heavens and place him there. Suddenly Orion's body was transformed into the most brilliant constellation in the sky. Diana was pleased, for because of the bright stars of Orion, her brother would always be jealous and Orion would be forgotten by none.

I SHALL NOT PASS THIS WAY AGAIN

Through this toilsome world, alas!
Once and only once I pass;
If a kindness I may show,
If a good deed I may do
To a suffering fellow man,
Let me do it while I can.
No delay, for it is plain
I shall not pass this way again.

A team conference.

The Blazers Varsity Baseball team, with first year coach Mr. Ulrich, had a tough season, finishing 6-15 league and 6-17 overall. There are 7 graduating seniors leaving this year. Senior Bill McCrudden was chosen for the Berks All-Star team. Special credit should also be given to Tom Wocklish, Kurt Batdorf, Jeff Prince and, first year man, Kevin Hoffman, for working so hard this season.

Is the ump whispering sweet nothings in Kurt Batdorf's ear?
